

THE MORNING APPEAL.

The Official Paper of Ormsby County
TUESDAY APRIL 23

ANOTHER SHORTAGE.

George Webb's Bondsmen pay $1,000

John N. Kirk, of Butte City, Montana, has been in this city for the past two weeks, has just collected a shortage of $1,000 from the bondsmen of George Webb, who used to be Superintendent of the Orphans' Home.

The Hook children who were in the Home were the beneficiaries in a life insurance policy on the life of their father who died at Placerville.

Webb collected the money as guardian of the children but never paid it to them. Mr. Hook now of age, knew that the money was due him as the sole surviving heir, and placed the matter in the hands of an attorney who collected the amount from the bondsmen. Dan Kitzmeyer and the estate of George T. Davis were on the bond.

Lottery Tickets Vabooed.

Wells Fargo & Co.'s agency here have refused to cash lottery tickets. It has been their wont, in times past to collect all tickets of the big lottery company, although for many years the Postoffice Department has not transmitted them. This refusal of the express company to transmit the tickets will be a blow to the business of lottery selling, which is apparently a thriving industry on the Comstock-Enterprise.

The above is all moonshine. The new order does not check the lottery business in the least. The tickets can be sent by freight, and the buyers can get their tickets the same as usual.

Appointments.

The following gentlemen were appointed by Governor Jones yesterday as members of District Board of Agricultural District No. 1, comprising Ormsby, Douglas and Storey counties: F. G. Folsom, Carson City; J. A. Wall, Carson City; T. C. Hanson, Genoa. The other members of the Board are Geo. C. Bryson, Jr., Robt. Grimmon, A. Livingston, Sam Longabaugh and L. L. Elrod.

A bright advertiser said as to advertising methods. "The goats eats the posters, the waste basket gets the circulars, the ragman secures the hand bill, but the newspapers are saved and read by the people."

The tour of King's Daughters resulted in $155 over and above expenses and the organization donated $10. The sum was sufficient to complete the church at Wellington.

It is now proposed to build heavy artillery of Aluminum. Tests have recently been made in which the results have been satisfactory.

A warrant was issued yesterday for Oliver Goyaille charged with being an idle, dissolute character, who lives with abandoned women.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup, has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and the best remedy for Diarrhea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. Benton's Liniment is for sale at all drug stores.

THE SHORTAGE.

The Government will open the Ball To-day.

There will be a large array of detectives, lawyers, inspectors, defendants, etc., etc., in the U. S. Court to-day, to begin the preliminary examination of John T. Jones, charged with being short $75,000 in his accounts with the Government. The investigation will be conducted with closed doors.

There is much speculation as to whether detective Harris will bring Henry when he arrives. The other detectives profess utter ignorance of the matter when asked.

The Examiner of Sunday has the following:

Henry Piper, an employe of the Judson Iron Works, was arrested at his home in Berkeley last night and charged with stealing gold and silver bullion from the Carson Mint, while employed in the smelting department some months ago.

It is believed that Piper knows a great deal about the mint frauds, all of which were perpetrated during his labors in the smelting department, and it is the intention of District Attorney Jones of Nevada to give him an opportunity to become a Government witness.

Piper's method of converting Government metal to his own use is said to have been quite ingenious. Once some visitors found his dinner bucket in their way as they were passing through the Mint, and when one of them tried to remove it he found it filled with metal. The fact was at once reported to the Superintendent, but when he hastened down stairs to see the bucket it was empty. Piper having thrown the metal back into the general stock. He was discharged, however, and previous thefts were traced to him. Piper was greatly surprised at his arrest and protested his innocence.

Piper will arrive here this morning.

Work For the Grand Jury.

It will be remembered that when the Silver Party had control of the schools a great hue and cry was raised and the people voted down all improvement for fear that the money in the hands of the Silver Party would be improperly handled.

Well the Republicans got the schools and at once proceeded to business. The Board made repairs and improvements on the building amounting to between $1500 and $1600. This was done in open defiance of the law and so quietly that the taxpayers were not on to the racket.

Section 1307 of the Revised Statutes prohibits the expenditure of over $500 for such purposes unless by a vote of the people in the school district. The question wasn't submitted to a vote and under section 2002 any citizen may recover from the bondsmen of a public officer or from the officer himself, for any money illegally expended. The Grand Jury have appointed three of its members to investigate school matters. Their report will be interesting to the taxpayers and is anxiously awaited.

Outside Opinions.

The investigation into the Carson Mint robbery is to be conducted behind closed doors. Had the doors of the Mint always been properly closed there would have been no need of the investigation.—Salt Lake Tribune.

The examination of John T. Jones, accused of stealing bullion from the Carson Mint, is to be held with closed doors. This means that the people will be kept in the dark regarding the steal until his trial takes place if held to answer by Commissioner Edwards. There is nothing to gain by such a course.—Elko Independent.

Dental Association.

The Executive Committee of the State Dental Association met in Carson Saturday evening and submitted the names of all the members to Gov. Jones who will select a State Board of Examiners from their number. The Executive Committee is composed of Conwell and Thomas of Virginia City, Chandler of Reno and Wardlaw of Carson.

If the Cuban revolutionists can manage to keep the field until next winter they will have established claims to recognition which a country like the United States cannot readily disregard. If the question of recognition ever comes up for consideration we can find plenty of precedent for affirmative action by copying some of the countries that will most fiercely denounce our precipitancy.

The miners in that model State of Tennessee are again indulging in bloody riots. This is the same State where Adventists are imprisoned for working on Sunday, and deputy Sheriffs are allowed to go free after murdering prisoners in their charge.

THE HORSES NOT THIRSTY.

A Man's Experience from Carson to Dayton and Back.

A few days ago the writer saw a man drive into the city with two sweating, jaded horses, who, when they reached the stable were about on their last legs.

"Been to Dayton and back," said the man to the writer.

"Drink anything on the road?"

"Well yes, I did take a snifter at Longabaugh's in Empire."

"And one at Andy Todd's across the way?"

"Believe I did take a drink at Todd's."

"And one at Culver's?"

"Yes a little beer."

"One at the Mound House of course?"

"Little red liquor at the Mound House."

"And one at Shaw's in Dayton?"

"Yes treated the boys at Shaw's."

"Took in Perrin's of course?"

"Yes had a drink with Fairbanks."

"And the rest of the saloons?"

"Yes took 'em all in, the Dayton boys always treat me pretty well."

"Drank at all the places along the road coming back didn't you?"

"Yes, I never go by any of these places. It don't look so-able you know."

"Did your horses have anything to drink on the way?"

"Don't think they did, you see the horses didn't seem thirsty."

A Very Queer Law.

Denver April 19.—The startling discovery was made yesterday that the recent Legislature enacted a law by which anyone marrying a girl 18 years of age or less becomes amenable to the penitentiary. A committee of women waited upon the Governor with this hair-raising proposition and asked him not to attach his signature to the bill.

As the bill was purposed and fostered by the women in its various stages, they think they have the right to demand that it be killed or vetoed rather than become a law in its present shape. Governor McIntyre gave the suffrage committee a copy of the bill, saying that he would not do anything before Saturday, when he expected them to have made up their minds about the measure.

Death of G. W. G. Ferris

G. W. G. Ferris, for many years a successful farmer of Douglas county, and the first gardner of the State Capitol grounds in this city, died at his home in Riverside, Cal., Sunday. Deceased was the father of Mrs. A. M. Ardery, Mrs. Fred Dangberg, Mrs. Charles M. Schulz and G. W. Ferris, of Ferris Wheel notoriety. He was a man of sterling worth and integrity, and liked by everybody. The beautiful elms surrounding the Capitol square were planted by him, and will always remain monuments in his memory.

A few days ago at a prayer meeting, a Farmland Republican brother prayed that God would cause the Republican party to hang together, whereupon a Democratic brother shouted "Amen! Amen!" This caused the Republican brother to make the following amendment to his prayer: "Not, O Lord, in the sense that our Democratic brother means, but in the spirit of accord and concord." "Any cord will do, O Lord; any will do!" ejaculated the Democratic brother. The pastor immediately made a rule that hereafter politics should be kept out of the prayer meeting.—Westphalia Times.

It is said that the Prince of Wales may come to this country to witness the contest for the America's cup next fall. If so, he will be received with entire hospitality, but there will not be as much fuss made over him as on his first visit. Then he was a young man, fond of gayety and fun; now he is a grandfather and prefers to take his pleasure more quietly.
